Happy Holidays to our Beaver Lake Families!

We hope you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving, and are looking forward to the upcoming winter break. The PTSA had quite a busy and fun November thanks the support of our members, and the BLMS faculty and administration.

THANKS to all of you! One of the most rewarding events that took place in November was our Bucks for Bulldogs program and the awarding of grants to teachers and staff that puts your PTSA dollars right back into the classrooms. With our chair, Khristie Tobler, and committee members, Marci Bartholomae and Jen Belding, grants were reviewed, approved and are currently being purchased. Approved grants include whiteboards for science classes, atlases for social studies, supplies for the PAWS room, stability chairs, books, funding for PBSES teacher-to-teacher observation, and more! This program and these grants would not be possible without the generous donations to our Pass the Hat fundraiser by all of you!

Congratulations to all students who participated in the 2018-2019 Reflections program. We received several remarkable entries that creatively conveyed the theme "Heroes Around Me." The entries were on display in the Commons, but if you didn't have chance to see them, visit the PTSA homepage (www.beaverlakeptsa.org). A special thanks to our Reflections Chair, Tanu Varshney, for all her hard work in running the program for BLMS this year!

PTSA once again brought the Scholastic Book Fair to BLMS! The proceeds benefit the BLMS library, allowing our librarian to purchase more great books for all students to enjoy. Thank you to Lynn Taylor for chairing the event again and to the volunteers for their help in setting up, tearing down, and running the fair -- Christina Schubert, Jill Bengis, Amy Hughes, Michele Brady, Michelle Lyman, Lisa Grady, Rory Mullen, Amy Ketchum, and April Weiner.

Trivia Night was back again this year with a great response. Thanks to all the kids, parents, and staff who joined in for the riveting rounds of trivia, the fast action minute-to-win-it games and Rubik cube competitions, and awesome raffles. Thanks to our Trivia Night chair, Stefanie Magnuson and PTSA members, Jennifer McCommon, Stacy Gazjuk, Debbie Lieberman, Lara Buis, and Sara Johnson, for making this such a fun event for all. A big shout out to our always entertaining emcees, Lane Helgeson and Stacy Cho! For those that missed the fun this year, we look forward to seeing you at next year's event!

If you're interested in participating in shaping the direction of the PTSA, it's never too late to get involved! One important and timely opportunity is to be a part of the Nominating Committee for next year's PTSA Board of Directors. This is a fun and interesting way to influence the future of the Board, and it is easy to participate with little time involved – and best of all, the actual time commitment doesn't occur until after the holidays! If you have interest in this important role, please contact Mary Jo Webb or Krystl McCandlish.

We are also very excited that ParentWiser is back again this year with informative parenting lectures. The next event will take place on January 9, 2019 at 7pm at Skyline High School. Local author and therapist, Jo Langford, will be speaking about adolescent digital behaviors and the risks and benefits with Digital Safety 101. This is a free event for all ISD PTSA members. Visit www.parentwiser.org for more details and to pre-register.

It is our privilege to serve such a great community of families as your PTSA Presidents. If you have friends or neighbors who have not yet joined PTSA, please encourage them to do so. Together we can make BLMS a great place for our kids! We are grateful for your support, and we look forward to seeing you and hearing your voice at our next General Membership meeting on Jan. 10, 2019 at 6:45pm in the BLMS library.

Wishing each of you a happy, healthy and safe holiday season!

PTSA REFLECTIONS

Thank you to all the students who submitted their creative and inspirational entries. A special shout out goes to the many BLMS staff who help with judging and to Tanu Varshney who served as event chair.

BOOK FAIR

The Book Fair was a great success! We really appreciate all the students, parents and teachers for supporting our fair. In total, we made over $1800 for the library! A huge thank you goes to our Book Fair volunteers, including Christina Schubert, Jill Bengis, Amy Hughes, Michele Brady, Michelle Lyman, Lisa Grady, Rory Mullen, Amy Ketchum and April Weiner, in addition to event chair Lynn Taylor.

TRIVIA NIGHT

We had over 100 people attend this family fun evening which included trivia, activities and great prizes. Thank you to the many PTSA volunteers who made everything run smoothly, including Jennifer McCommon, Stacy Gazjuk, Debbie Lieberman, Lara Buis and Sara Johnson, in addition to BLMS staff Mr. Helgeson & Stacy Cho. Plus, a special thanks goes to Stefanie Magnuson for chairing this great event.

Program Spotlight

We live in a STEM heavy community. The Foundation funds several programs that help students with Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math. Two examples are:

- Robotics Clubs are supported at several elementary schools and every middle and high school in the District. Schools compete in local and regional competitions, with the possibility of advancing to the world competition.
- STEMPosium is an annual after school community event for students K-12 showcasing how to gain STEM skills and knowledge through exhibits from STEM related industries, classroom projects, afterschool clubs, and student competitions.

Digital Safety 101

Jo Langford helps parents balance kids' digital lives with boundaries, etiquette and good judgment. He provides an overview of adolescent digital behavior with the risks and benefits of online life. Jo will discuss the social sites you need to know about --the good, the bad and the ugly, all explained! Including a primer on sexting, cyberbullying and more.

Learn to set limits, monitor behavior, and start the important conversations around kids' relationships to tech in a connected world. PLUS a healthy dose of Q&A.

Jo Langford is a dad, therapist and sex educator for kids and parents in greater Seattle. Jo has worked over 20 years at the intersection of adolescence, sexuality, technology and behavior, providing training for organizations and therapy to adolescents and families around a gamut of sexuality themes, including LGBTQ issues, internet safety, digital citizenship and comprehensive sex education.

HOLIDAY GIFT BARN

*Make the holidays brighter
for children in our community!*

Every December, we turn the Pickering Barn in Issaquah into a giant department store with brand new toys, games, clothing, and other gift items donated by the community. Families who need help providing that special gift for their kids are able to shop for free while their children are being cared for in our childcare area.

Want to donate?

You can shop with your family, join with neighbors or co-workers for a gift drive, or donate financially to help provide brand new, unwrapped gifts to over 1,400 children this holiday season. Be sure to register as a donor and find more details as well as a full donor toolkit online at www.issaquahfoodbank.org/hgb-donors. Donation drop-off will be December 3-4 from 1-7pm at the Pickering Barn in Issaquah.

Want to register your family to shop?

You can pre-register for a shopping time to select just the right gifts for your kids ages 0-18 and residing in the Issaquah School District. Registration is open November 1st through 30th at www.issaquahfoodbank.org/holidaygiftbarn or by visiting us at 179 1st Avenue SE in Issaquah.
